FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 24.

Letter from Mr. Davis. The following letter from Mr. Davis was received in Danville, Ill., yesterday: BEAUVOIR, Miss., June 20.

Col. Phocion Howard, Danville, Ill: DEAR SIR-In answer to your letter of request by the Danville Farmers and Mechanics' Institute that I should deliver an address at its fair, I reply as I did last year. Some years ago I delivered an address at the Winnebago county fair, and was received with great courtesy. There I was among friends, for my memory went back to the months of June, July, and August, 1832, when as a lieutenant upon the staff of Col. Zachariah Taylor, I was stationed at Prairie du Chien, or Fort Crawford, as it was then known, and during the memorial and historic Black Hawk war it was my good fortune to help in protecting the pioneer settlers of that country, whose descendants I spoke to at Rockford. I cannot come to Illinois this year. Thanking the association through you, I have only to say, as I said last September in an open letter to Col. J. T. Scharr, of Baltimore, that I deny the charges made against me by Gen. William T. Sherman, in which he says I was foremost in encouraging the late war. I say to you, my dear colonel, that I did all in my power to prevent the late war, and that I never looked for nor aspired to the post of chief or executive of the Confederates States. I may say that the order of the War Department to return the captured flags to the late Confederate States was a violation of all known military precedents. You will find in my history of the late war that there were but twenty-six regiments of regular troops in the army of the north, and of the total of 500 confederate flags captured, it is questionable if these twenty-six regiments captured fifty. The flags were captured by the volunteer army of the north, and belong to the several States, and have no right to be in the na-tional capitol. Respectfully yours, JEFFERSON DAVIS.

A BIG SCHEME.-A big scheme has just come to light through the rumor circulated some days ago that Michael P. Grace, broth. er of ex-Mayor Grace, of New York, had been killed by the Apaches. It has not been learned yet who started the story in the Southwest, as Mr. Grace is not there and has not been there for months. He is at present in London completing syndicate arrangements for a stupendous financial experiment, and it is understood that he has been successful. The project, which originated with the firm of W. R. Grace & Co., contemplets assuming the street of the contemplets of the con contemplates assuming the entire national debt of Peru, which amounts to hundreds of millions, mainly incurred during the war between Peru and Chili, from which Peru has been entirely unable to rally. Her pro-digious debt has rendered her helpless to undertake the repair of her ruined railways or to institute those public works necessary to restore her industries. The firm of Grace & Co., have had dealings with Peru, and they conceived the plan of assuming this debt for values received. The syndicate has had guaranteed to it all railway, telegraph and telephone privileges for an in-definite period by the Peruvian government. The bargain is a good one on both sides. The state is relieved of its debt, and given a chance to breathe again, and it is the interest of the holders of these privileges to develop to their utmost the industries and prosperity of the country through which their railways run.

Is it Really Consumption?

Many a case supposed to be radical lung disease is really one of liver complaint and indigestion, but, unless that diseased liver can be restored to healthy action, it will so clog the lungs with corrupting matter as to bring on their speedy decay, and then indeed we have consumption, which is scrofula of the lungs, in its worst form. Nothing can be more happily calculated to nip this danger in the bud than is Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," By druggist.

Nexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE'S circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who con sult its advertising columns before purchas ing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country ed tion-nearly as large as the daily--is sent all over this section of country three timea week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
